CONSTITUTION

Article I – Name

Section 1. The name of this organization shall be the American Satin Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. (A non-profit corporation.) Hereafter may be noted as A.S.R.B.A.

Article II - Objects

Section 1. This Association's objective shall be to maintain and improve the breeding of the various Satin and Mini Satin rabbit varieties sponsored by the A.S.R.B.A. Both breeds are to be viewed equally in all contests and activities.

Section 2. To maintain a sweepstakes system for the promotion of exhibition of Satin and Mini Satin Rabbits.

Section 3. To develop and create greater interest in, and demand for, Satin and Mini Satin rabbits and products.

Section 4. To distribute general information to the public and rabbit breeders regarding Satin and Mini Satin rabbits.

Section 5. To affiliate with other organizations for the advancement of rabbit breeding in general.

Section 6. To hold semi-annual conventions for its members, and meetings for its members and Executive Board.

Article III – Membership

Section 1. Any person may become a member of the American Satin Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. by making application and forwarding a minimum of one year's membership to this Association's Secretary.

Section 2. The Executive Board reserves the right to accept or reject, for just cause, any application for membership.

Section 3. All adult members shall have the right to vote in person at the meetings of the Association.

Section 4. All adult members shall also have the right to vote for election of officers or upon any other matters submitted by the Executive Board.

Section 5. Members may not vote by proxy.

Section 6. The Executive Board may elect as an Honorary Member any person distinguished for his/her political, scientific, industrial or administrative capacity. Honorary Members shall be exempt from all dues, fees, or subscriptions but shall have no right to vote unless also a regular paid member of the Association in good standing.

Article IV – Authority

Section 1. This Association shall have the authority to make such laws, establish such rules and adopt such regulations as may be necessary for the government of its members.

Section 2. Robert’s Rules of Order shall be considered as the final authority for this Association on all questions not specifically covered by the Constitution, By-Laws and Show Rules.

Article V – Meetings

Section 1. The semi-annual meetings of the Association shall be held in conjunction with the annual American Rabbit Breeders Association Convention and the National All-Satin Show, such place to be designated by the Executive Board. Notice of such meeting shall be set forth in writing by the Association at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of such meeting.

Article VI – Officers

Section 1. The officers of this association shall consist of a President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer and nine Directors. The President, Vice President, Secretary-Treasurer and the Directors shall constitute the Executive Board of this Association.

Section 2. The Secretary-Treasurer shall be appointed by the President with approval by the Executive Board for a four year term beginning on January 1st of an odd year OR in the event of a vacancy of the office to begin as soon as appointed to fill the remainder of the current term. For the following transactions the President will appoint another member to record minutes and the Secretary-Treasurer will be excused for the duration of the discussion.

A. The performance is to be evaluated annually by the ASRBA executive board. Unsatisfactory performance may result in removal from office if approved by a 2/3 majority of the Executive Board. A summary of the performance evaluation to be given to the Secretary-Treasurer by the President.

B. Any qualified ASRBA member may submit resume and letter of intent to the President by May 1 of the year prior to the term for which the Secretary-Treasurer would be appointed. The current Secretary-Treasurer may reapply to serve another term. All applications will be evaluated by a minimum of a 6 person subcommittee of the Executive Board chaired by the President.

- Section 3. The President and five Directors to be elected in odd years. Vice President and four Directors to be elected in even years. Only one (1) Director from the same state shall be allowed to serve on the Executive Board at the same time.
- Section 4. Any adult member may be a candidate for the office of his/her choice. Candidates for any and all offices must be members of the ASRBA and ARBA.
- Section 5. Member shall obtain nomination petition from the Secretary for any elected position no later than May 1.
- Section 6. Member shall fill out nomination petition and said petition shall be returned to the Secretary on or before June 1. Postmark of June 1st or prior date or clearly scanned image e-mailed by June 1st shall constitute fulfillment of this requirement.
- Section 7. Nomination petition must bear candidate's signature, the office he/she wishes to be a candidate for and attest to the fact that said candidate is a bonafide Satin or Mini Satin rabbit breeder. Nomination petition must also include candidate's resume.
- Section 8. When Secretary receives nomination petition, properly prepared, the member's name shall be placed on the election ballot.
- Section 9. The official ballot shall be issued by the Secretary on or before September 1 and shall contain the names of those qualifying for the respective office for which they are nominated. All adult members in good standing will be allowed to vote. Polls will remain open until October 1.
- Section 10. The officers shall be elected by ballot. In the event that a candidate is running unopposed then the candidate will be elected by acclamation and no ballot will be sent.
- Section 11. All valid votes shall counted by the Election Committee who shall certify the results to the offices of the Secretary and the President.
- Section 12. The highest number of votes received for any office shall constitute election to that office. In the event of a tie, the President shall dissolve the tie.
- Section 13. The Secretary shall notify all candidates of the results at once and the newly elected officers shall take office January 1st. following the election.
- Section 14. No member of the Election Committee can be nominated for office.
- Section 15. When a vacancy in any elected office occurs, the vacancy shall be filled by appointment by the President and approval by the Executive Board.
- Section 16. No person may hold or run for election of more than one office of the Executive Board at a time. A person holding an office may seek election or appointment to another office.
- Section 17. Any candidate defeated for any office of the Association, requesting a recount of ballots, shall make application for such recount to the Secretary within sixty (60) days following the election.
- Section 18. The Secretary shall require a deposit of sufficient funds to defray the cost of a recount. The amount of such deposit to be fixed and approved by the Executive Board. A recount shall then be made by a committee of three (3); the contester shall pick one (1) member, the Executive Board shall pick one (1) member, and a third member shall be chosen by the other two members of the committee. All three members of the committee shall be members of this Association in good standing. The committee shall assemble and personally count all ballots cast for the office or question in dispute, and the report of the recount, certified to the Executive Board, shall be final. In the event that the contester is declared right by the committee, his/her deposit of funds shall be returned.

Article VII – Duties of Officers.

Section 1. The President shall:

- A. Preside at all meetings of the Association
- B. Act as Chairman of the Executive Board.

- G. Collect all monies due the Association.
- H. Pay from the funds of the Association such claims as are properly authorized and approved.
- I. Furnish to the Association a bond in sufficient amount to cover all assets of the Association in his/her possession or under his/her control. The President shall approve said bond. The Association shall pay the cost of any such bond.

Section 4. An auditing Committee shall be appointed by the President each year to examine and certify the accounts and records of the Association at the end of the fiscal year and before a new Secretary-Treasurer takes office within a fiscal year.

Section 5. The general supervision and conduct of the affairs of the Association shall be vested in the Executive Board.

Section 6. The Executive Board shall:

- A. Carry out the objectives of the Association.
- B. Authorize expenditures, not exceeding the assets of the Association.
- C. Devise ways and means to carry out the objects of the Association.
- D. Make rules as may be deemed necessary for the Association and the conduct of its business and other affairs.

Section 7. The Executive Board may honor any member who has distinguished himself/herself for exceptional merit in any manner pertaining to A.S.R.B.A., Satins and/or Mini Satins.

Section 8. All transactions by the Executive Board must have majority approval, except where noted differently.

Article VIII – Compensation

Section 1. The Secretary-Treasurer shall be paid twenty-five (25%) percent of all income received for memberships and one dollar and twenty-five cents ($1.25) for each open and youth sanction issued (A sanction is counted as one Satin and one Mini Satin sanction number issued per an ARBA sanction number). Compensation is to be paid quarterly during the term for which he/she is appointed or until replaced.

Section 2. The President and Secretary-Treasurer shall be allowed one hundred dollars ($100.00) each for A.R.B.A. convention expenses.

Article IX – Youth

Section 1. Any youth through eighteen (18) years of age may become a member of the American Satin Rabbit Breeders Association, Inc. by making application and forwarding a minimum of one year's membership to the association's Secretary.

Section 2. Youth membership shall have all the rights and privileges of an adult member, except the right to vote on Association affairs.

Article X – Alterations and Amendments

Section 1. Any alteration of, or amendment to, the Constitution shall be made by a resolution via one of the following methods:

- a. Resolution in writing signed by ten (10) or more members in good standing of this Association and delivered to the Secretary.
- b. Resolution by the Constitution and By-laws Committee with approval by the Executive Board.

Section 2. All resolutions are to be confined to one (1) subject.

Section 3. The Constitution, By-Laws and Show Rules Committee will prepare and codify the resolution for publication in the Satin News and on the website. All resolutions shall be printed in the Satin News at least one issue prior to being voted upon.

Section 4. Ballots will then be mailed, preferably in the next Satin News and the Constitution may be amended by an affirmative two-thirds (2/3) vote of all adult members casting ballots.

Section 5. Ballots will be returned to and counted by the Election Committee.

Section 6. Any member in good standing of this Association requesting a recount of ballots on a change in the Constitution, shall make application for such recount to the Secretary of this Association within sixty (60) days following the close of the balloting as per Article VI, Section 17 of the Constitution.

Section 7. A resolution adopted shall take effect sixty (60) days after certification by the election Committee unless otherwise specified in the resolution.
